Establishment of new Special Mark Buoy

Mariners are advised that on or about 22nd November 2018, 1 new Special Mark danger buoy will be established to indicate a newly designated Foul Ground area on the seabed at the following locations:

- Yellow Special mark buoy "Z2" - Pillar Y, Cross Y 'X' topmark, Fl (4) Y 10s in position Lat 52° 54.050'N., Long 000° 16.115'E.

The area of foul Ground extends approx. 1000m to NNE and 1000m to SSW from the above position.

Foul Ground is defined as "as an area of foul ground, not dangerous to surface navigation, but to be avoided by vessels anchoring, trawling etc".

The chart symbol for foul ground is a pecked line surrounding a # symbol.

The attached chart extract details the location of the foul ground and associated Isolated Danger buoys.
